La Catrina®
Red Blend

Flowing from 3000 year old traditions, the Day of the Dead celebration reflects on memories and reminds us all to embrace life now. As the flavors and sensations of La Catrina engulf you, let your past and future merge to toast this moment.

Winemaking Notes

Redblends are both among the most fun and the most challenging for our winemakers. For the red blend, we delved deep into our treasure trove of available blenders, adding, subtracting, discussing, arguing and in the end, deciding on an optimal blend of varieties to deliver a unique and delicious blend Stainless fermentation and storage on a touch of french oak gave a wine with both upfront fruit and subtle complexity.

Taste

Celebrating the best of all things crimson, this Red Blend delivers a harmony of dark ripe berry and luscious acidity. An ideal companion to mixed grill kebabs and portabella mushrooms.
