How to make a stretchier bind-off or cast-off edge

This version of binding off or casting off gives a bind-off edge that looks more like your cast-on edge, and it is much more stretchy:

- ♥ Knit together the first two stitches on the left needle.
- ♥ Slip the new stitch on the right needle back to the left needle.
- ♥ Repeat until all stitches are bound off.
- ♥ Pull up the last loop and weave in end.

To knit through the back of the loop: Insert your needle from right to left, with the RH needle behind the LH needle, lifting and spreading the back of the loop — the side of the loop on the opposite side of the needle. Then, wrap the yarn around the needle and pull a new loop through.
