In The Garden

Springtime means everything in the garden is waking up after the cold, sometimes dark days of winter. It may not yet be the prime weather of Summer, but there's still plenty to do.

Sow seeds in little punnets or shallow containers (with drainage holes) and keep them damp in a sunny and warm spot. A window ledge is suggested as a good spot by a local. Watch the weeds – they are growing like 'they mean business'.

Be ready with gardening gloves, a small fork and a keen eye! Seeds to plant now (or soon) – Edibles – beetroot, beans, cabbage, lettuce, leeks, tomatoes – (also try plants as our summers can be 'somewhat' short), sweetcorn, lettuce, leeks....

Ornamentals – calendular, cornflower, dahlia tubers, gerbera, marigolds, zinnia.

One more to try – give Sunflower seeds a go, that'd be special as the sunflower is HOPES symbol. Enjoy the sun – safely of course. All the best and let's see how your garden grows.

In The Kitchen

Warm Vegetable and Feta salad

Ingredients –

Spring vegetables – such as snow peas/ asparagus, young carrots or pumpkin

Fresh herbs – such as dill/chives/parsley or chervil

Note: use whatever you find in season that suits you.

Good quality feta

Roasted nuts eg: pine nuts, hazelnuts, peanuts

Method –

Cook the vegetables till done 'to your liking'
Drain well and pile onto your plate

Break up cheese into bite sized pieces & mix with the vegetables.

Pour over some fresh lemon juice and a little extra virgin oil.

If using large nuts (eg: hazelnuts), chop roughly. Sprinkle them over the warm, dressed salad.

Enjoy!
