

OUR SACRED LANDS: FOOD, FARMING AND FAIRNESS

March 6th at 6:00 PM (virtual and in-person)

First Congregational United Church of Christ ABQ 2801 Lomas Blvd SE

Join us for a hybrid event uplifting the voices of those at the center of our food systems in New Mexico and beyond. We will hear about the multi-faceted challenges facing farmers and ranchers - from mental health to local challenges to national legislation such as the Opportunities for Fairness in Farming Act. Join our wonderful panelists to learn about the ways we can bring awareness and advocacy to this most sacred vocation of tending our food systems.

Panelists Include

Sarah Carden, Farm Action Fund

Alan Brauer, Indigenous Farm Hub

Cash Carruth, Bloomingfield Rancher

Zach Withers, Polk's Folly Farm

Desiree Woodland, Suicide Prevention Group

Moderator: Pam Roy, Farm to Table
