Guidelines for Applying for Citizen Advisory Boards and Commissions

- Please submit one application per board or commission for which you are applying. The application will be kept in an active file for two years.

- To allow a large number of citizens to serve on boards and commissions, the City Council policy allows individuals to serve on only one standing board or commission at a time. A current member of a board/commission who is a successful applicant for another board/commission will be required to choose one board/commission on which to serve. This policy does not apply to ad hoc committees or departmental committees or positions that are designated for members of specific advisory group, or those established under law.

- Current board or committee members must submit a new application at the end of their term if they wish to reapply. The deadline for applications from incumbents is the same as the deadline for new applications.

- City of Hoboken employees may not serve on City of Hoboken boards or commissions except as specifically provided by the Municipal Code, or as required to perform official duties.

In accordance with the Local Government Ethics Law (N.J.S.A. 9-22.1 et seq.) annual Financial Disclosure Statements must be filed by elected officials, certain government employees, and members of the housing authority, recreation commission, planning board, zoning board, board of health, board of education, and library board of trustees. Financial Disclosure statements indicate the source of income but not the amount.
