

PRIVACY PROMISE

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM US

- Where you are giving your informed consent as to whether to provide us with your information, or what we do with it, we aim to make it is as easy as possible to exercise that choice.
- We always set out the reasons for the collection of information and only use it for those reasons.
- Only the information we actually need is collected and processed.
- Your personal information is seen only by authorised staff who need it to perform their duties. These staff will be trained appropriately.
- Any information which we no longer need is deleted, unless we are compelled to keep it by law. Where we cannot delete it, we will make this clear.
- Decisions affecting you are made only on the basis of reliable and up-to-date information.
- We will apply reasonable protections from unauthorised or accidental disclosure by adhering to the highest security standards.
- A copy of any information we hold about you is provided to you on request and we will honour your requests and rights, subject to the relevant appropriate legal restrictions and guidelines.
- Any inaccurate or misleading information is checked and corrected as soon as you bring this to our attention.
- We will put in place appropriate controls to manage any third-party vendor or supplier we deal with, holding them accountable via contract to the highest privacy standards, and ensuring they do not act without our instruction, passing on your choices and restrictions.
- Proper procedures are in place for dealing promptly with any complaints that you make. The principles apply to personal information that we hold in all formats, including computer and paperbased records.
- We will only share information with external agencies for specified purposes, for reasons required by law or with your consent.
