

Graphic design and social media volunteer

Location: Remote

Start date: November 2023

Note: Must be an Arabic speaker!

Are you passionate about design and keen to use your creative eye for good? Are you looking to expand your design portfolio and learn about human rights along the way? LFJL is seeking a volunteer to help with the Communications Team with design and social media!

Applicants will have the opportunity to gain hands-on work experience at a leading human rights NGO and to develop knowledge of the human rights field. Your support will allow us to continue our work raising awareness about human rights and accountability in Libya.

This opportunity is perfect for anyone looking to get into communications and outreach work in the NGO sector. Time commitment can vary between 10 – 20 hours per week, for a minimum of 3 months.

But enough about us, we can't wait to hear about you! We are particularly interested in hearing from you if you are the kind of person who is...

- Creative with an eye for current design trends;
- Comfortable using design software eg. Adobe InDesign, Photoshop and/or Canva;
- Experienced in producing graphics for social media (including in Arabic language, please share examples);
- Has a strong eye for detail and maintaining consistency of brand;
- Experienced in drafting and scheduling content for social media;
- Highly organised, with a natural flair for balancing priorities and deadlines;
- Interested in human rights and social movements!

To apply, please send examples of your design work (if possible, include English and Arabic design projects) and a short cover letter on why you're interested to work with LFJL to:
