

Join us as we celebrate the 14th Annual World Circus Day
&
Dedicate the new sculpture of Old Bet

Saturday, April 20, 2024

Children come dressed as your favorite circus animal or performer!

Schedule for Day

The Elephant Hotel, a National Historic Landmark

- 11am Dedication Ceremony
(At the base of the Old Bet Monument, a National Historic Landmark)

On the front steps of the Elephant Hotel

- Immediately following the ceremony hear Hachaliah Bailey, as depicted by Hudson Valley Master Storyteller Jonathan Kruk, sharing tales of his adventures with Old Bet and the traveling menagerie days.

Inside the Elephant Hotel

- NOON & 12:30PM – Screening of the video
Re-Creating a Local Landmark – The Old Bet Sculpture of Somers, NY
(Meeting Room)
- 11:45am -1pm – Photo/video diary & display
A Monumental Project – Preparing the Obelisk
(Map Room)
- 11:45am - One day passes to Rye Playland for children age 3 to 12 will be available in the lobby of the Town House.
Passes include general admission and all 2024 rides. You must be present at the event to obtain a pass, Supplies are limited. Passes are compliments of Rye Playland.

Playland

In the Tents across the Parking Lot from the Elephant Hotel

- 11:45am – 1pm Children sculpt, color or craft your own version of Old Bet. Pieces of Old Bet Sculpture's rubber mold on display.
- 9:00am – 3pm Keep Somers Beautiful distribution of bags for the Roadside Cleanup Event

Light Refreshments served compliments of & Somers Historical Society.

Additional parking available at St. Luke's Episcopal Church (331 Rte. #100).

Information: somershistoricalsoc@yahoo.com