

DIGGING DEEPER

Why do you think John the apostle modeled humility? What creates humility in Christians?

Why is it necessary that a witness to Christ be brief? If you had more time, what would you add to your witness?

Does Jesus really have great love for great sinners? Is there a limit to that love? If so, where is the line?

Do you think that sinners make better and more effective witnesses for Christ than "saints"? If so, why?

Would you have proposed Peter as a leader at Northland given his tract record? Do great sinners make better leaders than "saints"?
