Stop-Over

Looking for some stop over ideas on your route through the Adirondacks? Plattsburgh, NY has an ideal location right off of New York's I-87, which runs directly through the Adirondack region connecting us to our New York City friends to the South and to our Canadian neighbors to the North.

Exit 37 will lead your group to the Adirondack Coast's main shopping and dining district with a plethora of stop over options that will get your group back on the bus and on their journey within the hour.

CHAMPLAIN CENTRE MALL

The best of these options, which gives your group both shopping and dining in one stop is Champlain Centre Mall. From boutique stores, a movie theatre and food court to some of those great chain stores you just gotta have, Champlain Centre offers a variety for your group to browse around and enjoy. Here's why Champlain Centre is a great stop-over (or just a great stop!) for your groups:

- Right off of the ever so convenient New York I-87
- Lots of bus parking to spare
- Handicap accessible
- Plenty of bathrooms
- Food court with some quick meal options and a seating area
- Movie theatre (if you have the time)
- Target, Hobby Lobby, DSW and other great chain stores
- Unique local shops
- Mall directories available in both French and English
- Group planning and welcome bags with coupons available
