

FOUR ROSES SINGLE BARREL

A delicate bouquet of dried raisins, vanilla, and fresh picked flowers on the nose. The palate provides a burst of flavors - heavy rye spice, honey, peaches, and subtle hints of brown sugar and light oak. It coats the tongue nicely, leading into a long, lingering finish with additional notes of leather, old wood, mint, dried raisins, and cherries.

RUSSELL'S RESERVE SINGLE BARREL

Aromas of aged oak and tobacco find balance against sweeter notes of vanilla and burnt caramel. The intensity of the proof makes itself known on the palate with an intense flavor pop comprised of burnt oak, tobacco, leather, caramel, and vanilla. It turns to the sweet notes as it trails off, with a wonderfully rich brown sugar and caramel aftertaste.

WOODFORD RESERVE DOUBLE OAKED

On the nose, heavy oak dominates with sweet caramel, brown sugar, rye spice, and toasted marshmallows hiding underneath. Rich charred oak dominates the palate with a slight dab of vanilla rounding things out. The mouthfeel is extremely viscous, and carries on into the finish that presents additional flavors of leather, caramel, brown sugar, and dried raisins.
