

Ensley Alliance Men Event Planning Worksheet

Planned Date: September 27, 2008	Participation Goal: 20
Event: Workday with Breakfast: Remove tree, Remove stump in parking lot, engineer breezeway ceiling, replace door to classroom area, install shelves in shed
Purpose of the Event: Fellowship, relationship building, maintenance of the church
Evaluating the Goals of the Event
1. Describe the goal in this event: Fellowship, relationship building, maintenance and upkeep of the church
2. How will this activity contribute to our short-range goals? Fellowship, relationship building,
3. How will this event contribute to our long-range goals? Build relationships in preparation for small groups and one-on-one discipling
4. What are we hoping to accomplish in the lives of participants? Establish teamwork, bonding, camaraderie
5. Are Jesus Christ and His purposes central to this event? Yes X No
6. What is the targeted purpose of this event? Worship   Fellowship X Discipleship   Evangelism   Ministry   Service X
7. How will this targeted purpose uniquely focus the event, activity, ministry? Change perceptions about who we are, both internally and externally
8. Does this event, activity, ministry honor our purpose statement? Yes X No
9. What level of commitment are we targeting? Community X Crowd X Congregation X X Committed X Core X
10. What "base" commitment are you targeting? Including Men   Instructing Men   Involving Men   Investing Men
11. Have we honored the male context in this event, activity, or ministry? Yes X No   . This will be an all male event, allowing men to bond at their own pace with a resulting sense of accomplishment and pride in the work
Advance Steps to Be Taken
Action	Deadline	Assigned To:	Number Needed
Breakfast		John Brill	3
Tree Removal		Herman Eckstein	3
Stump Removal		Herman Eckstein	3
Breezeway Ceiling Plan		Larry Martin, Joe Donald , Frank Lynn	3
Install Shelves		????	3
Replace Door to Classroom Area		????	3

Hot Wash-up After the Event

1. How were the pre-established event goals fulfilled by this event?

2. How were short- and long-range goals enhanced by this event?

3. What positive results were seen in the lives of men?

4. Which listed goal targets did we hit?

5. Where did we fall short in meeting goals or hitting our targets?

6. What was the most positive thing about the event?

7. What should we have changed?

8. What did we learn for application with future events?