

OAKLAND ZOO BIRD CROSSWORD

MEDIUM

Across

5. The vulture group the California Condor belongs to.
8. This bird is a scavenger.
9. The shape of the African Spoonbill's beak (not spoon, but _____).
11. Cattle Egrets are a _____ species, meaning they are found world-wide.
13. White-vented _____.
17. Guira Cuckoos are native to _____.
18. _____ Flamingo.
19. The genus for the Blue and Gold and Military Macaws.
20. Bald Eagles and Red-tailed Hawks belong to this bird group.

Down

1. Parrots have this kind of foot.
2. A carnivorous wading bird with head feathers that resemble a hammer.

Down

3. The Sulphur-crested _____ has a fancy yellow crest used for communication.
4. There's two of this kind of bird at the Oakland Zoo, and they are known for their long, large bills.
6. The male Taveta _____ (pl) are known for making intricate hanging nests.
7. This bird will often fly toward a grass fire to catch the bugs that are fleeing from it.
10. This bird was revered by ancient Egyptians.
12. In the emu world, the _____ incubates the eggs.
14. The Great _____ is a rainforest bird that prefers to spend its time on the ground.
15. The name of this corvid implies that it has two or more colors to its plumage.
16. The United States national bird - once endangered, but now no longer.