

OAKLAND ZOO CONSERVATION CROSSWORD

Across

4. _____ are formed from the remains of living things that died millions of years ago.
7. The choice you have when purchasing products with excessive packaging is often called _____.
9. A natural resource that can be replaced is called a _____.
10. A solid nonliving material found in the ground is called a _____.
11. A material consisting of a wide range of synthetic or semi-synthetic compounds that can be molded into solid objects is called _____.
12. Using materials or products again is called _____.

Down

1. Organic matter that has been decomposed is called _____.
2. The process and behavior of using natural resources that can be maintained at a certain level for a long duration of time with no harm to the environment is called _____.
3. Things found in nature that are useful to people are called _____.
5. A natural resource that cannot be replaced is called a _____ resource.
6. Using less of a material is called _____.
8. The process used to make new products out of old materials is called _____.