

ANIMAL DIGESTION & SCAT

Across

- To emit stomach gas noisily through the mouth; belch.
- A meat eater.
- A set of things working together is a _____.
- An animal characterized by being covered with feathers and having wings and a beak.
- Solid matter discharged from an animal's digestive system.
- _____ are organisms that eat everything from waste and garbage to dead animals.
- The scientific word for poop.
- The process of breaking down food.
- Animal manure is often used as _____ to return nutrients to the soil to help plants grow.

Down

- The excrement of seabirds and bats.
- A _____ is a mammal that eats and digests plant-based foods like grass using a multi-compartmental stomach.

Down

- If you eat both plants and animals, you are an _____.
- An animal characterized as being cold blooded with scales covering its body.
- An animal covered with fur or hair and that provides their babies milk.
- Organisms that use photosynthesis to create energy from sunlight.
- An animal that eats only plants.
- _____ are those organisms that get their energy from eating other organisms.
- Many animals' dung is essential for seed _____.
- Because we have a stomach with only a single compartment, humans are _____.
- A food _____ is made up of all interacting food chains in an ecological community.