

Nomination Form for HPNC Person of the Year

The community of Hyde Park is fortunate to be home to many talented, caring, and charitable individuals. Some have touched people with acts of kindness or added to the quality of life in our community. Others have shown remarkable dedication to neighborhood issues or made other significant contributions that have made a difference. Each year at its Annual Meeting, the Hyde Park Neighborhood Council (HPNC) honors an exemplary adult resident of Hyde Park — one of those remarkable people we are proud to call neighbor. HPNC invites all Hyde Park residents to nominate a Hyde Park adult who is worthy of this honor.

Do you know a special Hyde Park resident who has touched people with acts of kindness or added significantly to the quality of life in our community? Someone who has shown remarkable dedication to neighborhood issues or made other major contributions that have made a difference? If so, please consider nominating them for this wonderful award.

To submit a nomination for this award, please send the Hyde Park Neighborhood Council this completed Nomination Form via hpncpres@gmail.com.
