

Connect

Create causal links between items.

Created by

Date

The Topic

Input-Output

A fishbone diagram is a tool used to visualize all the potential causes of a problem in order to discover the root causes.

Once the problem has been clearly defined, decide on the categories that the causes will be placed in. In the corresponding grey boxes, list the individual causes you that generated.

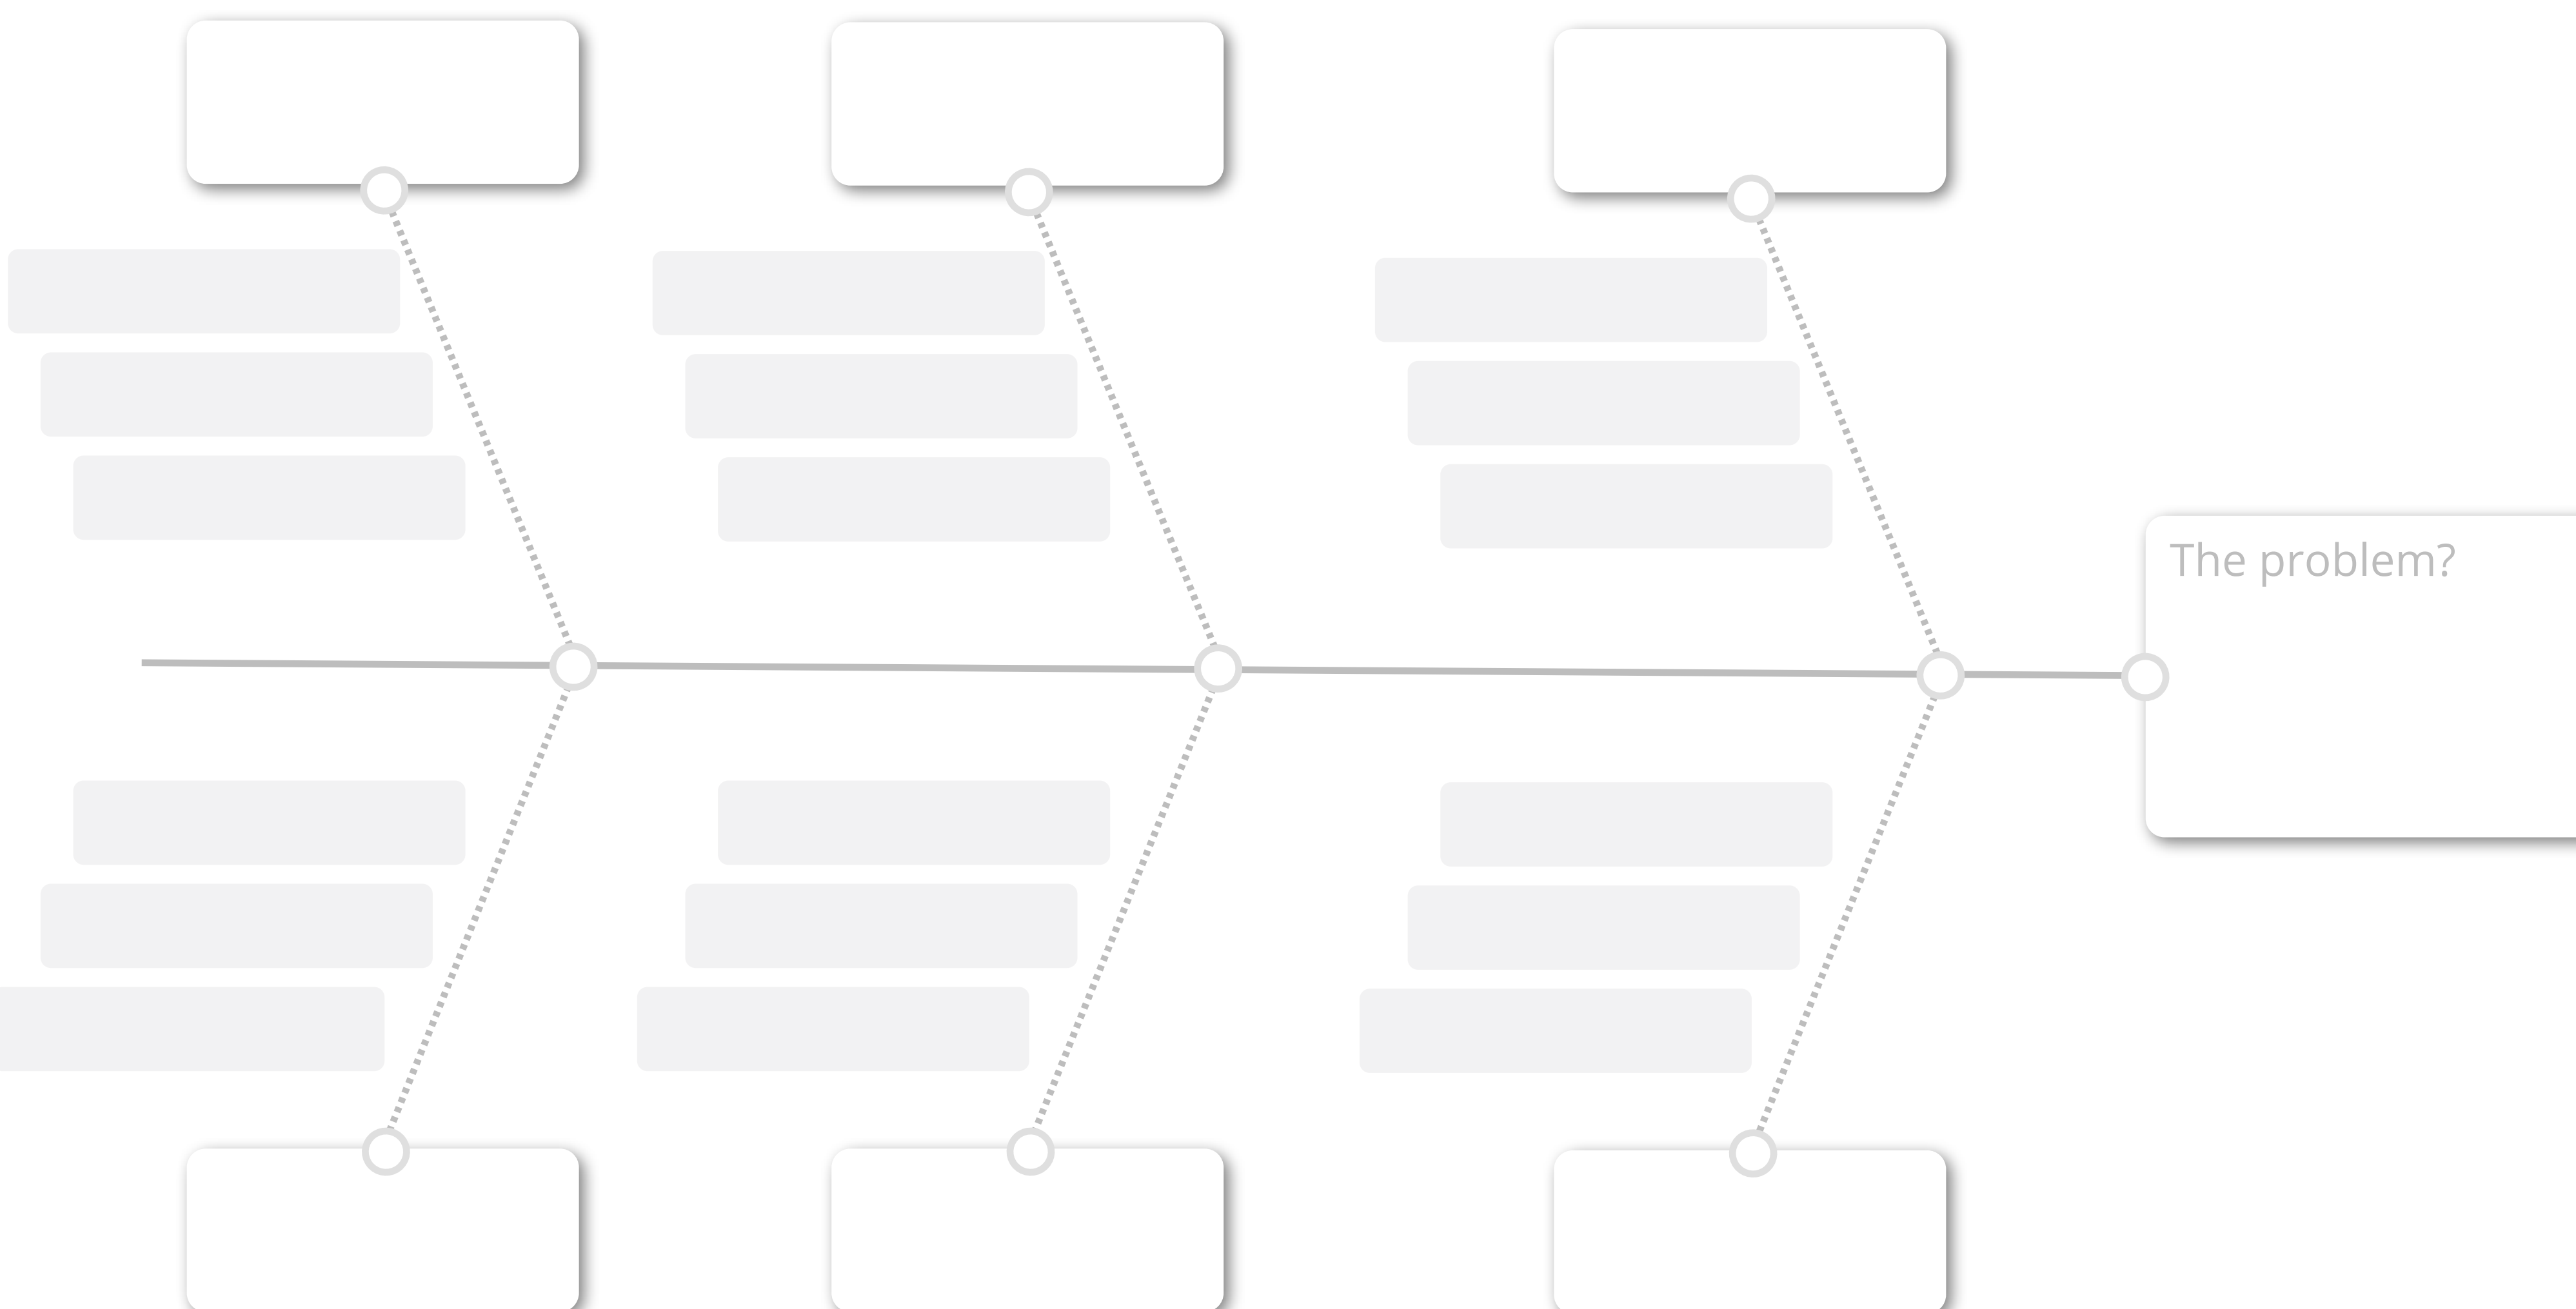

New Vocabulary?

Reflection

How well did you understand the key ideas?

How interesting did you find the topic?

Generalise

Make a widely applicable statement.

Generate Questions

Create further lines of enquiry.