

8 SECTION ST, PAARDEN EILAND, CPT METALHEADS

A Destination In Paarden Eiland

The iconic Metalheads site has taken its name from the renowned Harley Davidson wholesaler located in the park. This park, designed by German-based designers, has become a well-known destination in the heart of Paarden Eiland.

Metalheads is an eclectic park offering industrial, office and storage areas that are unique. These spaces are best suited for wholesalers, logistics companies, retailers, production studios and distributors. This park has everything that your business needs in order to thrive. This includes a staffed reception, two modern meeting rooms, large open-plan pause areas, bathrooms, kitchens, parking, and cycle racks. The wide range of businesses that call Metalheads home use the park as quasi-retail workspace.

About the Area
