The King's Coronation weekend, May 2023

Suggestions from the Palace included:

Saturday 6th – The Coronation, people likely watching from home

Sunday 7th – The Big Lunch, street parties to be encouraged

Monday 8th – The Big Help Out, street cleaning, sign cleaning your street

Olney Town Council are facilitating and supporting:

Saturday 6th – The Coronation, The Baptist Church are showing the ceremony on their Big Screen, everyone is welcome, they will be serving tea and coffee.

Sunday 7th – The Big Lunch, lots of street parties are already arranged, around 500 residents will be celebrating, in addition to the two care homes in town joining in the festivities, Broomfields have an open invitation to join their tea party.

Don't forget, being the first Sunday of the month, it's the Farmers Market, so lots of picnic treats to be found there!

Monday 8th – The Big Help Out, the local Brownies are having an organised litter pick, the Guides and Rangers are cleaning the street signs, the Scouts are cleaning the road signs, St Peter and St Paul church are also facilitating litter picking from there.

See the wonderful window displays the town retailers have created!

You are invited to create your own Coronation themed artwork to display in your window for everyone to enjoy.
