

Dear All

I have just received some more good news on one of our recent artists. In this year's festival you may remember that Erin Gwyn Rossington sang Gareth Walter's 'Can y Galon' with the Carducci Quartet at Llanrhidian. She has since gone on to compete at this year's National Eisteddfod of Wales and won the W.Towyn Roberts Scholarship (worth £5000) for vocal solo.

I have been informed that she sang Musetta's Waltz Song (La Boheme, Puccini) very beautifully. If anyone would like to see her performance, it is available on BBC iplayer and was shown in 'Eisteddfod with Sian Eleri' episode 3, on BBC4 - Saturday 19th August. Erin appears about 50 minutes in from the beginning of the programme.

It is really great when we hear of young artists, who have appeared at the Gower Festival, doing so well!

Best wishes,
Anne (Pope)
