ABOUT THE DRIVER

Greg began his career with Armour Transportation Systems in July of 2001 as a Class 1 Driver. For 21 years, Greg has provided safe, reliable, and professional service to Armour's customers and his fellow colleagues. As his career continued to progress, Greg became heavily involved in Armour's Coaching Program, sharing his industry and organization knowledge with those joining the Armour family. He established himself not only as a premier Armour ambassador but an industry ambassador. Greg performs at an exceptional level despite the challenges his role and our industry face. He treats his co-workers, new and old, industry professionals and all others with respect and dignity and always offers a helping hand. In his spare time, Greg spends time with his wife and pets. Greg truly demonstrates the core values of family that Armour prides itself on and is a true ambassador of our business. Armour Transportation Systems, as well as the transportation industry, are better and will continue to improve because of Greg MacKinnon.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Armour Transportation Systems was founded by Mr. Gordon Armour in the early 1940s, using his truck to haul hay and gravel out of Taylor Village, a small farming community located 20 miles outside of Moncton, NB. Today, through strategic alliances with other major carriers, Armour has grown to service all of Canada, the United States, Mexico and beyond. Armour Transportation Systems is one of Canada's leading transportation specialists, with over 2,000 employees, 24 terminals and more than 4,000 pieces of equipment.
