

Sean Willoughby

ABOUT THE DRIVER

Although Sean has only been with the company for just over a year, he came to Eassons from Trinidad with 6 years of experience. Since then, he has become a shining star to his co-workers. He is by far one of the nicest people I know and will go out of his way to help anyone. Recently, Sean has moved from being a new driver mentor to a coach and has taken a few students under his wing and helped them become the best possible driver they can be. Earlier this year, Sean, along with many other drivers, was recognized for going a full year with no accidents, or incidents. This was all in his first year of being in Canada and driving in all types of different weather conditions. We are extremely proud to call Sean one of our own. Great work Sean, I can't wait to see what the future holds for you with our company!

Congratulations Sean!
