Remuneration

In our role as Fund Promoter, we receive a portion of the management fees (being the total fees and costs charged to members of Future Super) equal to the balance of the total fee minus the investment and administration fees and the fund expense and operational risk reserves accrued in the calculation of the unit price. This fee is estimated to currently be approximately 0.26% of the Fund per annum. The Trustee and the Administrator of Future Super also receive a portion of the management fees.

In our role as Investment Manager, we receive a portion of the management fees. These investment management fees differ depending on which option you are invested in, and are set out in the PDS and Additional Information Booklet for the Fund.

We will always ensure that the fees and costs associated with Future Super are disclosed in an easy to understand way in the PDS and on our website.

All of our staff are paid a salary, and none of our staff will receive a commission, fee or bonus for providing general advice to you or if you choose to make an investment in Future Super.

If you have a financial adviser and you would like them to receive a commission or advice fee paid from your Future Super account, the amount of this fee will be negotiated independently between you and your adviser. You should ensure that you always receive a Statement of Advice (SoA) when receiving personal financial advice from a financial adviser. You may inform us at any time if you want to remove any advice fees from your Future Super account.

Professional Indemnity Insurance

We are covered by the Professional Indemnity (PI) insurance held by the Future Superannuation Group. This PI insurance provides cover for claims arising from the conduct of representatives who are or were employed by us, or one of the other entities within the Future Superannuation Group, where we are found to have a liability for financial loss suffered by a person to whom we have provided a financial service.

These arrangements satisfy the compensation requirements of section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). You do not have a direct right to claim under this insurance.

For any complaint that is unable to be resolved to your satisfaction, or if you do not receive a response within 90 days of making your complaint, the Government has established an independent body, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). This Authority's contact details are:

AFCA can deal with complaints that relate to a decision or a failure to make a decision by a trustee or a person acting for a trustee, in relation to a particular individual. AFCA cannot deal with certain complaints, for example, complaints about the management of a fund as a whole. Time limits may apply to complain to AFCA and so you should act promptly or otherwise consult the AFCA website to find out if or when the time limit relevant to your circumstances expires.
