

AdvanceTEC Named to ENR's 2020 Top 600 Specialty Contractors List

Engineering News-Record recognizes AdvanceTEC as a top specialty contractor for its industry leading Cleanroom Integration

Richmond, VA, November 4, 2020 – AdvanceTEC, the leader in cleanroom design, construction, and mission critical process integration, today announced that it has been named to the Engineering News-Record's (ENR) Top 600 Specialty Contractors Listing. The ENR 2020 award recognizes AdvanceTEC based on the Company's 2019 annual construction revenues derived from engineering, designing, and construction cleanrooms and high-purity process integration projects.

“AdvanceTEC is honored to once again be recognized by ENR on their Top 600 List of Specialty Contractors,” commented Bryan Phelan, AdvanceTEC managing partner and director of customers. “We see our ongoing recognition by ENR of this award as a testament to the value we provide our customers. Our unique approach to Cleanroom Integration is founded in our proprietary Cleanroom IP, which brings together our experience and our technology. We harness the power of the latest digital tools and embed internal platforms with over 30 years of cleanroom and mission critical process utility calculations, algorithms, standards and best practices; and then automate, accelerate and put them into action to deliver real value for our customers.”

Through lists like the Top 600 Specialty Contractors, ENR supports the construction industry by performing annual surveys of its key segments, and ranking companies engaged in general contracting, specialty contracting, engineering, architecture, and environmental services, among other specialties.
