

Level 2 and 3 qualified Early Years Practitioners and Educators

We are looking for experienced, enthusiastic, caring and reflective early years educators to join our team. Applicants should have a good level of education, an NVQ L2 or 3 in childcare or an equivalent qualification. Applicants would ideally have previous experience working in an early years setting however we welcome interest from newly qualified practitioners.

Situated in the beautiful, rural parkland of the former Tyntesfield Estate on the outskirts of Bristol, Bertie's is an inspiring, caring day Nursery which provides a wealth of opportunities and acres of green space for children aged from 6 months to school age.

At Bertie's we believe 'Childhood is special' and that it takes special people to help children grow and develop. The successful candidate will be joining an experienced and well-qualified team who are committed to the development of each individual child. By really getting to know each child we provide a stimulating, nurturing environment focused around the child's interests and needs, enabling them to thrive.
