

June 1, 2019

Re: GSP Update - India

Dear Valued Client,

An announcement was made at 8 pm EST on May 31 that India will be removed from the Generalized System of Preferences effective June 5th. President Trump has determined that India has not assured the United States that they will provide equitable and reasonable access to its markets. India will also be subject to safeguard duties on solar cells and washing machines effective June 5th.

To read the official press release from the White House, please refer to the link below:

<https://publicpool.kinja.com/subject-proclamation-to-modify-the-list-of-beneficiary-1835164196>

Please direct any questions that you may have to your JAS representative.

Sincerely,

JAS Forwarding USA

+ 770 688 1206

PHONE

6165 Barfield
Road
Atlanta, GA
30328

ADDRESS

WWW.JAS.COM

PEOPLE
MAKE THE DIFFERENCE