Re: UPDATE - Section 301 Tariffs

Dear Valued Client,

On December 1, an announcement was made that the additional Section 301 duties scheduled to increase on January 1, 2019 from 10% to 25% will not increase. The Section 301 duties will remain at 10% pending further negotiations with China over the coming months.
