Re: U.S., Canada, & Mexico Reach Agreement to Update NAFTA

Dear Valued Client,

The U.S., Canada, and Mexico announced Sept. 28 an agreement to modernize the 25-year-old North American Free Trade Agreement. The agreement is now called, "The U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA)" and is expected to be signed by Dec. 1 which could bring it up for congressional consideration in early 2019.

According to fact sheets from the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, the USMCA includes provisions on agriculture, manufacturing, intellectual property (IPR) and changes to low value shipments.

To see the complete list of the provisions in the USMCA Agreement, please refer to the link below:
