Re: GSP Expires December 31, 2020

Dear Valued Client,

The Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2020. Until further notice, GSP eligible goods entered or withdrawn from warehouse need to pay "General" (column 1) duty rates effective, January 1, 2021, 12:00 am. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) encourages importers to continue to flag GSP eligible importations during the lapse, starting January 1, 2021. JAS Forwarding will continue to flag for GSP eligible entries.
