

Hoosier Foot & Ankle Joins Upperline Health

Nashville, Tenn., November 3, 2020 -- Upperline Health, leader in lower-extremity care, has partnered with Hoosier Foot & Ankle, a 9 physician and 11 clinic group serving the greater Indianapolis area. Patrick DeHeer, DPM and 8 associates will be joining the Upperline Health team through the partnership.

“Hoosier Foot & Ankle is a huge partnership for Upperline Health in Indiana,” said Michael King, DPM, Chief Medical Officer at Upperline Health. “Our rapid growth in the Indianapolis area and partnership with these top-notch foot and ankle specialists will allow Upperline Health to continue serving more patients in need across the country.”

“I have put my heart and soul into building Hoosier Foot & Ankle into something special over the past 16 years, and I am thrilled to be partnering with Upperline Health,” said DeHeer. “Upperline’s strategic plan and vision are exciting and market changing. Being part of such an innovative organization that puts patient outcomes first using data-driven care is game changing.”

In addition to Dr. DeHeer, Hoosier Foot & Ankle includes the following associate physicians: Farwa Abid-Hoffman, DPM, AACFAS; Christine Bhinder, DPM; Bryan Camp, DPM; Anthony Jagger, DPM; David Smith, DPM; Richard L. Thatcher, DPM; Tyler Vestile, DPM; and Aaron Warnock, DPM, AACFAS.
