

Folding Story

Take a piece of paper and write a sentence about a person on their way somewhere exciting. Fold the paper over the sentence so you can't see it. Ask someone to write the next line of the story and fold the paper again. Do this till you get to the end of the piece of paper and see your story unfold.

Compliment Game

What are the best things that someone has said to you? Think about five nice things to say and say them to someone. You could even say them to yourself.

What are they like?

Think about your favourite person describe them from the tops of their heads to the tips of their toes

Camera View

Put your index finger of your left hand on the thumb of your right hand, and the index finger of your right hand on the thumb of your left hand. Well done! You've made your own small screen! What can you see through it? What scenes can you capture?

Picture Drawing

Stick a plain piece of paper onto the wall with some sticky tape. Grab a piece of cloth for a blindfold and a pencil. Hold the pencil in your mouth while blindfolded and draw something on the page. See if someone can guess what you drew. Try and avoid drawing on the walls!

Silly Collectables

Instead of collecting stamps or coins, why don't you start your own special collection? Decide on a rule like 'things that are round' or 'things that look like other things'. You can keep your collection in a shoe box and decorate it to make it extra special.

Scribble Studio

Close your eyes and draw a scribble on a blank sheet of paper, any shape or size. Open your eyes.

What does it look like? Can you add to your scribble to turn it into an animal? What about a building or city? A person? What's the most interesting thing you can make from your scribble?

Secret Detectives

Make up a mystery. Now, work out how you're going to solve it. Can you find clues?

Do you need to use disguises?

Make sure no-one is on to you!

Plot Twist!

What's your favourite story?

Can you imagine it having a different ending?

What would happen if there was suddenly a new character in the middle of the action?

New Shoes

Find a pair of shoes that aren't yours.

Try them on – how do they feel?

What kind of person are you when you wear them? Do you have a new voice? Do you walk differently? What's your new name?

Ms Kettle

Imagine the objects around you have a secret life.

What would the kettle say if they could talk?

Would they be friends with the toaster?

Would they find the fridge annoying?

Does the couch long to have a chat with the toilet?

BIG + Small

Search for the smallest and largest things you can find.
Have a competition with your family.

Shadow Drawing

Find a pencil and a large blank piece of paper. Locate a bright sunny window or door, lay the paper flat. Search your house for small animals, toys, robots or trees. Line them up on the paper and draw their fabulous shadows!
