Sacred Sedona & surrounds with Sarah

The hidden treasures we explore together in Sedona, around Flagstaff and the Grand Canyon will hold, ground & inspire you to listen to your true voice within.

This is your opportunity to return to Self, re-mem-bering through the wisdom of the ancient ones & nature herself.

Immerse yourself in the cradle of mother earth energy. Be guided through the four elements of our natural world, led by the most genuinely beautiful shaman, Chandra Sun Eagle.

About Sarah

For years Sarah has been called to immerse herself deep within the core of sacred Sedona. The spiritual connection to the earth and all that live here resonating within her soul. Sarah has been incorporating the intelligence of animal totems within her life and her work, drawing from the wisdom of the Native American medicine cards. A Reiki Master, Sarah has an incredible gift of holding space for you to reconnect with your highest and truest self. She is warm and generous with a superb ability to make sense of what is evolving for you within all realms of your being.
