

OCG005 ORGANIC GENMAICHA

OCG005 Organic
Genmaicha

Product Description

Organic Genmaicha combines the rich flavors of steamed green tea with the roasty,, nutty character of toasted rice. This is the classic Japanese-style green tea.

Green teas like organic genmaicha have mild caffeine levels and contain antioxidant polyphenols and l-theanine amino acids.

Contains caffeine. Allergen free. Non-GMO.

Origin

Organic Genmaicha became popular in Japan when toasted rice was added to traditional green to stretch the supply of green tea while also making it more affordable. Fird Tea's OCG005 Organic Genmaicha is produced with tea leaves grown in Yiwu County of Zhejiang Province, steamed like traditional sencha green tea, and combined with toasted brown rice.

Cupping Notes

Organic Genmaicha infuses to a yellow tint with aromas carried by the toasty rice. The liquor combines the nuttiness of the rice with softer elements of vegetal and mineral from the steamed green tea.
