

Casino Journal 2012 Top 20 Most Innovative Gaming Technology

February 21, 2013

Casino Journal magazine, in conjunction with the Gaming Technology Conference, will host the Top 20 Most Innovative Gaming Technology Products Awards presentation next month in Las Vegas. Now in its 16th year and one of the oldest and most recognized such contests in the gaming industry, this year's contest garnered 75 product entries, each of which was judged by an independent three-person panel that ultimately selected 20 worthy products.

Judging this year's contest were Greg Solomon, chief executive officer, MotorCity Casino; Donne Grable, vice president, gaming operations, VCAT LLC; and Warren Davidson, slot director, Coshatta Resort.

Their choices, the 2012 Top 20 Most Innovative Gaming Technology Products winners, in alphabetical order, are:

Bally Technologies—Challenge Connection

Bally Technologies—iGaming Platform

bis2—crmViz

Casino Data Imaging—GlobalSuite Multi-Game/Multi-Denom Module

International Game Technology (IGT) —DoubleDown Casino Partner Program

International Game Technology (IGT) —Juke Box Feature in Dolly Parton Games

Interblock—Hologram Gaming Lounge

JCM Global—Dynamic Network Applications

Joingo—Mobile Loyalty System

Konami Gaming—True Time Tournaments

Each of these winning entrants will be profiled in the March issue of Casino Journal, and be honored and awarded a plaque at the Wednesday, March 13 keynote luncheon at the Gaming Technology Conference, slated for March 12-13 at the Green Valley Ranch Casino Resort in Las Vegas. The winners of the Platinum, Gold and Silver Awards, along with the winner of the contest's Attendee Choice Award, will be announced at the luncheon. Show attendees will vote during the Gaming Technology Conference for the Attendee Choice Award winner, selecting from among the Top 20 winners. These top four award winners also will be featured in the April issue of Casino Journal.

Casino Journal congratulates the Top 20 winners and thanks all of the contest entrants and its judges for their valuable time and the diligence of their analysis.
