Upcoming Listings

Invite potential buyers to preview new properties before they are launched on the market.

Advertise your Upcoming Listings with Adfenix

With early access, buyers can discover properties they won't find on portals, making you the best place to start their search, and positioning you as a leading player in your area.

This allows you to create stronger relationships with your customers. It may also shorten the sales cycle, helping you to find the right buyer faster.

How does it work?

- ✓ Select a property on your website as "upcoming"
- ✓ We send you a preview of your Upcoming Listing campaign
- ✓ We advertise the property to a target group that has shown interest in similar properties
- ✓ You benefit from better customer relationships and shorter sales cycles

More Views

Social media works around the clock to put your property in front of a larger audience.

High Quality Enquiries

Smart targeting and filtering delivers interested buyers.

Faster Sale

Active buyers + qualified interest = a faster sale.

You're In The Loop

Your live results page shows how many people view your ad and how many enquiries are made.
