

Create an Adfenix Log-in

Make the most of the Adfenix platform and take advantage of the new extra options you have to run campaigns.

Create an Adfenix Log-in today and immediately access your entire listing portfolio, create new or repeat campaigns, track the status of active ads and find all your Seller Campaign Reports in one place.

It's simple to set-up an Adfenix Log-in where you can:

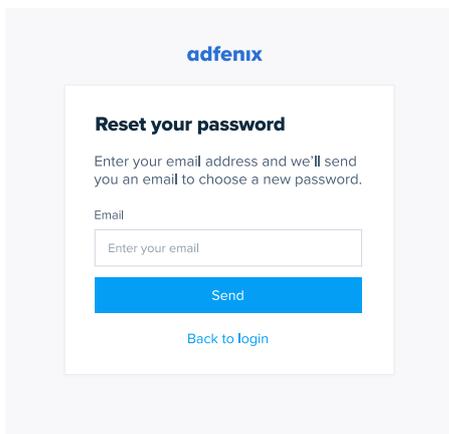

- ✓ View, search and find any property listing that is available in your account.
- ✓ See real-time status of all your campaigns.
- ✓ Locate and activate new or repeat campaigns for your listings
- ✓ Find your active and completed Seller Results Reports in one place – great for when you want to show multiple examples during a new listing appraisal

Frequently Asked Questions

Q1 I didn't get an email to set my password?

First, make sure you have used the reset URL <https://portal.adfenix.com/resetpassword>.

Secondly, check your spam folder. The email is from info@adfenix.com with the Subject line:

"Reset your password for Adfenix." If neither of these things works, send an email to Adfenix Support Team at support@adfenix.com.

The reason why you can't reset your password might be that we have not created your account yet since we have not picked up any of your listings. No listings = no account.

Q2 Can't I just click the link in any campaign notification email to access my log-in area?

Yes, you certainly can. However, using this log-in process is simple and gives you more visibility over the extra options you have to run campaigns.

Q3 My assistant manages my Adfenix account for me. How do they access the log-in area?

You will need to share the password you create with them. Better still get them to create the log-in for you using your email. As account admin they will appreciate being able to simply and speedily access the whole portfolio of your campaigns.
