PCP is NOT...

- An easy, one-shot process
- The answer to all problems
- A quick fix solution to complex human and/or organizational problems
- Something to be done and forgotten
- A guarantee

4

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

What is PCP?

- Planning Process
- Assessment Tool
- Intervention
- Motivational Activity
- Team Building Process

5

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Five Essential Goals of PCP

1. Be present & participating in community life
2. Gain & maintain satisfying relationships
3. Express preferences & make choices in everyday life
4. Have opportunities to fulfill respected roles & live in dignity
5. Continue to develop personal competencies

6

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Why is PCP so important?

- Retains focus on the person’s needs
- Supports a team approach
- Broadens the support
- Changes the participants
- Results in better supports that fit the life of the individual

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7

How is PCP done?

- Series of frames or activities that help us understand the person, what they want and how to work together to make it happen
- Visual representation on chart paper
- Assemble a team that:
  - knows the person well, and
  - is desired by the person

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

8

A PCP Team

- Commits to action for change
- Coordinates supports around the individual, not the system
- Recognizes the influence of individuals in the focus person’s life

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

History of Person-Centered Planning

Approaches to PCP developed in past 30 years:

- 1980 Jack Yates, Individual Service Design
- 1987 Beth Mount, Personal Futures Planning
- 1989 Marsha Forest & Evelyn Lusthaus, MAPS and Circles
- 1992 Michael Smull & Susan Burke Harrison, Essential Lifestyle Planning
- 1995 Jack Pearpoint, John O’Brien, & Marsha Forest, PATH

Testimonial

“Without person-centered planning, the team is not able to think about the person holistically. Instead they become focused on the behaviors and this limits their ability to make the focus person’s needs a priority.”

MUSC Commitments

- Strong Relationships
- Equity
- Deeper Learning
- Collaboration
- Innovation

The infographic features a central circular diagram with five segments, each representing a commitment. The segments are: 'STRONG RELATIONSHIPS' (top-left, with an icon of three people), 'EQUITY' (top-right, with a scales icon), 'DEEPER LEARNING' (center, with a graduation cap icon), 'COLLABORATION' (bottom-left, with a speech bubble icon), and 'INNOVATION' (bottom-right, with a lightbulb icon). Arrows connect the segments in a clockwise cycle. The entire graphic is set against a yellow background with green and blue accents. At the bottom, the 'MARANA' logo is visible.

43

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Engaging Students

Building positive relationships is key in engaging students in any type of individualized intervention.

A photograph of a hand writing the words 'We Build Relationships' in white chalk on a black chalkboard. The chalkboard is positioned at an angle, and the hand is visible in the bottom right corner, holding a piece of chalk.

44

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

How Do We Build Relationships?

- Establish trust
  - Take time to get to know the student & allow him/her to know you
- Honesty
  - Be truthful, but diplomatic
- Relatability
  - When possible, share appropriate pieces of your life with students to build a relatability factor and help to normalize their situation
- Being genuine
  - Student engagement is only possible when the adult shows a genuine interest in helping
- Respect
  - Meet students where they are, always refrain from judgment, & be respectful

A decorative graphic consisting of several curved, overlapping lines in shades of blue and green, located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

45

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Relationships Take Time

- Plan on getting to know a student/family before broaching the idea of an intervention
- Take time to get to know the student and understand their goals and barriers
- Explain to all parties that individualized interventions take time and are not a “quick fix”

46

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Building Engagement

“Engagement stems from relationships.”

“The relationships that we have built (through intervention) allows kids to find support in the midst of trouble and turmoil.”

- Bruce Hesse, School Counselor, Mountain View High School

Processes for Building Relationships w/Students

- Interviewing
  - Motivational
  - Parent/Teacher/Student
- Interest Inventory
- Home Visits
- Mapping

MOTIVATIONAL INTERVIEWING

R RESIST telling them what to do:
Avoid telling, directing, or convincing your friend about the right path to good health.

U UNDERSTAND their motivation:
Seek to understand their values, needs, abilities, motivations and potential barriers to changing behaviors.

L LISTEN with empathy:
Seek to understand their values, needs, abilities, motivations and potential barriers to changing behaviors.

E EMPOWER them:
Work with your friends to set achievable goals and to identify techniques to overcome barriers.

Initiating Individualized Interventions

- Student is in the driver’s seat
  - The student identifies his/her own barriers and goals
  - The student decides who is and isn’t a supportive member of their “circle”
  - The goals of the student may not be the goals of the adults.... and that’s okay

50

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Initiating Individualized Interventions (cont.)

- Facilitate, don’t operate
  - Encourage the student to run the meetings by encouraging them to identify and advocate for the things they want to work on or talk about
  - Taking over or running the meeting in a formal manner can make the student feel as though it is another one of “those” meetings
  - Use examples or guiding questions to allow the student to come up with their own ideas and celebrate them when they do

51

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Initiating Individualized Interventions

Engaging students in their own interventions includes

- Active listening
- Empathy
- Validation
- Encouragement/ Empowerment

52

Task	Questions to Consider	Step #
1. Gather Information about the student's history and current situation.	What is the student's history? What are the current challenges? What are the strengths and resources?	1
2. Identify the student's strengths and resources.	What are the student's strengths and resources? How can these be used to address the challenges?	2
3. Identify the student's challenges and barriers.	What are the student's challenges and barriers? How can these be addressed?	3
4. Develop a plan to address the challenges and barriers.	What are the goals? What are the steps? Who is responsible for each step?	4
5. Implement the plan.	What are the steps? Who is responsible for each step?	5
6. Monitor and evaluate the plan.	What are the steps? Who is responsible for each step?	6
