

JAMES NAISMITH
BUILDER

Edmonton Grads – Individuals Induction Class of 1983

- The Edmonton Grads were a Canadian women's basketball team
- The Edmonton Grads continue to hold the North American record with the best winning percentage of all time
- The Edmonton Grads won their first women's title in 1924

- The Grads consisted of 38 players over their 25 year playing history; Including: Winnie Martin (Tail), Eleanor Mountifield (Vogelsong), Connie Smith (McIntyre), Daisy Johnson, Nellie Perry (Mcintosh), Dot Johnson (Sherlock), Abbie Scott (Kennedy), Elizabeth Elrick (Murray), Helen McIntosh (Davidson), Mary Dunn (Dickson), Elsie Bennie (Robson), Kate MacCrae (Shore), Hattie Hopkins, Marguerite Bailey (Jacobs), Mildred McCormack (Wilkie), Margaret McBurney (Vasherresse), Gladys Fry (Douglas), Mae Brown (Webb), Joan Johnston (McEwen), Margaret Kinney(Howes), Babe Belanger (Maclean), Doris Neale (Chapman), Edith Stone (Sutton), Helen Stone (Stewart), Evelyn Caulson (Cameron), Jessie Innis (Maloney), Noel McDonald (Robertson), Mabel Munton (McClay), Helen Northup (Alexander), Etta Dann (Soderberg), Sophie Brown (Drake), Frances Gorden (Mills), Winnie Gallen (Reid), Jean Williamson (Quilley), Babe Daniel (Lickoch), Betty Ross (Bellamy), Kay MacRitchie (MacBeth), and Betty Bawden (Bowen)

