Jay Triano—Athlete
Induction Class of 1993

- Born in Tillsonburg, Ontario

- While playing at Simon Fraser University Triano broke or equaled 11 school records including all-time scoring with 2616 points

- Member of the Canadian Men's National Team from 1977-1988, Team Captain from 1981-1988

- Triano competed in two Olympic games, and leading the 1984 team to a 4th place finish in Los Angeles

- Led the 1983 Canadian Men's Universiade team to a gold medal finish at the World University Games in Edmonton

- Drafted to the Los Angeles Lakers in 1981, but never played in the NBA instead playing professionally in Mexico and Turkey

- Since retiring from playing, Triano has been an active coach in the NBA and Canadian Men's National team program

CANADA
BASKETBALL