

JAMES NAISMITH
BUILDER

Al Rae – Official Induction Class of 2000

- Born in Saskatchewan
- Rae is best known for the professionalism with which he approached refereeing on and off the court
- Top level referee, officiating games at the National and International level
- Officiated at four Olympic Games in 1964, 1968, 1972 and 1976
- Officiated at International competitions like Pan Am Games, World Student Games and the Asian Games
- Played a pivotal role in the development of two referee instructional manuals and the FIBA rules casebook for 1974, 1976, 1980, 1990 and 1994
- Received the FIBA Award of Merit in 1997
- Served as the Executive Director of Canada Basketball from 1982-1989

