

Bob Gage—Builder Induction Class of 2001

- Raised in Windsor, Ontario
- Known as “Scoop” or “Gager”
- Attended Assumption College
- Began as a Sports Writer for the London Free Press in 1949
- Retired in 1982, 33 years later, having never missed a Western Men’s basketball home game
- Bob attended the Olympics in Rome, Tokyo, Mexico City, Munich, Montreal and Seoul as a sports writer
- Covered the Commonwealth and Pan Am Games
- One of Canada’s most decorated sports reporters, known for his ability to remember athletes, coaches and teams from high schoolers to Olympians

