

JAMES NAISMITH
BUILDER

Jim Zoet – Athlete Induction Class of 2015

- Born December 20, 1953 in Uxbridge, Ontario
- The 7'1" post-player played on scholarship at Kent State University, where he was known as a defensive stopper
- Played 2 seasons at Lakehead University (1976-1978), where he earned CIAU All-Canadian honours both years
- Led Lakehead University to the national championships in 1977, averaging 19 points per game
- Member of the Canadian national team from 1977-1980, competing in the 1980 Olympic Games
- Brief service in the NBA with the Detroit Pistons, before playing professionally in the Netherlands, England, Argentina, Mexico, and the Philippines

