

CANADIAN BASKETBALL

Hall of Fame

Todd MacCulloch – Athlete Induction Class of 2017

- Born January 27, 1976 in Winnipeg, Manitoba
- Led the Shattesbury Titans to 2 provincial championships (1993-1994), averaged 36.3 points, 17.1 rebounds, 4.7 blocks, and 5.1 assists in high school
- Played for the Manitoba Provincial team (1993-1994), averaged 34.3 points, 14.6 rebounds and 3.8 assists
- Played for the University of Washington Huskies (1995-1999), was named an Honourable Mention All-American in 1999, was inducted into the Huskies Hall of Fame in 2006, and was remembered as one of the best shooting big men in UW history
- Drafted 2nd round by the Philadelphia 76ers, playing 4 seasons in the NBA with both the Sixers and the New Jersey Nets before being forced into early retirement due to Charcot-Marie-Tooth disease
- As a starting center for the Nets, averaged a career best in points per game, assists and blocks
- Played for the Canadian National Team a total of 93 times, most notably the Olympic team in 2000
- Remains one of the greatest centers in Canada's history
- Recognized by the Manitoba Basketball Hall of Fame and Manitoba Sports Hall of Fame

