

ONE ROCK CAPITAL PARTNERS EXPANDS OPERATING PARTNER TEAM WITH THE ADDITION OF DR. KEVIN LANG

NEW YORK, March 10, 2022 – One Rock Capital Partners, LLC ("One Rock"), a value-oriented, operationally focused private equity firm, is pleased to announce the addition of Dr. Kevin Lang to its team of Operating Partners. Dr. Lang will be responsible for driving post-acquisition value at One Rock's portfolio companies through strategic, science-backed solutions focused on manufacturing and distribution in the food and beverage industry.

Dr. Lang brings almost 40 years of experience in the food and beverage industry to this role, particularly in operations, research and development, quality, environmental matters, and financial management. Prior to joining One Rock, Dr. Lang founded Soundwatch Consulting, which is focused on developing formulations to increase the shelf life of bakery snack foods. He also recently served as COO of Delavau and Innovation and Research Development Leader at Hostess Brands.

"For the last several years, Kevin has worked alongside One Rock, providing strategic insights and support to our portfolio companies in the food and beverage industry," said Tony W. Lee, Managing Partner of One Rock. "His depth of knowledge and experience has helped to drive growth and value creation for our investments, and we look forward to continuing to work with him in a more official capacity as he joins our Operating Partner team."

"After many years working with One Rock and its portfolio companies, it is a natural next step to come on board formally by joining the Operating Partner team," said Dr. Lang. "I look forward to continuing to collaborate with One Rock and the portfolio company management teams to drive growth and execute key initiatives."

Working with Operating Partners has been a key part of One Rock's strategy since its inception. Dr. Lang joins a growing team, which now includes 20 Operating Partners at One Rock.
