

Cheryl Slinko

Senior Associate

25 years in Executive Search

Areas of Expertise:

Merchandising, General
Management, Operations, Specialty
Retail, Fashion

Her Practice: Cheryl's executive search practice focuses on high-level search assignments in a broad range of functions in fashion, retail and consumer products.

Her Background: Cheryl began her executive search career at Herbert Mines Associates in 1996. From 1998 to 2006 Cheryl held various positions at two boutique search firms specializing in retail and fashion, where she led search engagements for executives in merchandising and design. In addition, Cheryl's role included database development, information technology, and she managed the research and administrative teams. Cheryl returned to Herbert Mines in 2006 as a Senior Associate.

She earned her bachelor's degree from Hofstra University and currently resides with her family in Westchester.