

Pawel Skiba

28. May 2020

LOYALTY

On average Pawel has worked for about 2 years for each company he has been employed. One position he held for 4 years. He has worked remotely for the last 4 years for the same company, and he is still there.

REMOTE FIT

Pawel has 4 years of experience working remotely. He is not a member of a co-work space, but he has a home office in a major city in Europe. His English is perfect. The Internet connection in the interview was good. He has great experience with online tools such as Slack.

FLEXIBILITY

Within his professional field, he has shown great flexibility. From web-designer to video editor and marketer. Both in employed roles and as a freelancer.

GROWTH MINDSET

Pawel is constantly developing himself within his field, as he has gone from being a web designer to marketer to an entrepreneur. He also has one bachelor's degree in aviation management and has started on another degree that he has yet to finish.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

Pawels LinkedIn is professional and contains enough details about him to get an overview of his background. The same with his CV.

To the point without wasting space on nonessentials details.

VOLUNTEERING

He has listed one experience as a volunteer in the role of a coordinator for a festival in Poland.

RECOMMENDATION

Pawel is looking for a position where he can use his creativity. He has an entrepreneurial mindset which is evident with him starting a business at a young age. He has also shown proficiency in marketing, and especially in the use of video in marketing.

He fits into any business that works in a creative field, but his passion for trying new things can make him a good fit in businesses looking for growth.

His remote setup is professional.

Report by Paul Arnesen