

Rain Lieberman

26. May 2020

LOYALTY

Rain has many years of loyalty to her clients. She has worked remotely as a freelancer for the last 4 years. Before that, she has held various positions for shorter time periods. The longest period of time was for almost 5 years.

REMOTE FIT

Rain is an established digital nomad who enjoys and thrives with working freelance on the road. She has a professional setup wherever she resides and understands the importance of having a strong internet connection. She subscribes to a coworking app and has access to workspaces if needed. She is born and raised in the UK.

FLEXIBILITY

She is a professional designer and a specialist in UX/UI, but she has worked in other fields of design as well. She has worked on various projects where her classic design skills have been used. She is also now teaching and acting as a mentor UX/UI skills on an online platform. She has the ability to fit into many different roles within her professional field.

GROWTH MINDSET

Rain has attended universities in different periods of her career. She finished her bachelor of architecture in 2008 and finished a UX course in 2014. She constantly tries to develop her skills and strives to stay on top of the game.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

Her LinkedIn profile is very good and she has received 2 great references from former colleagues. Her CV is evidence of a designer. It is easy to read and structured.

VOLUNTEERING

Rain has not indicated any specific volunteer work.

OUR FEEDBACK

Rain is a seasoned professional in UX/UI design. She had more than 11 years of experience as a designer. She works well alone as a freelancer but also has great experience working in remote teams.

She could be considered to be a remote team leader on bigger design projects. Her background is varied and her international experience is a valuable asset.

If a start-up is launching, she has experience from working on a complete life cycle of product design.
