

Quetta Locchi

13. May 2020

LOYALTY

Quetta has years of experience and her loyalty for her projects and clients is undisputed. Many projects have gone on longer than 1 year, but she has also experience that are more than 4 years.

REMOTE FIT

Quetta has worked remotely for the last 5 years. She has an international mind and has lived and worked in many countries. She is born and raised in the US but now lives in Rome, Italy. She has a professional home office and is very familiar with online meetings and dialog.

FLEXIBILITY

Quetta is proud to say that she will engage in any role you give her within her professional field and she likes to define herself as a Special project manager. Her wide range of former jobs and experience tells of a highly flexible person.

GROWTH MINDSET

She has held so many roles in her career that she is a lifelong learner. In her roles, she has always needed to learn something new and she has always put a lot of effort into becoming very strong at any skill.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

Her LinkedIn profile is outstanding and is a treasure trove of information about Quetta's professional life and background. It is well structured, the same is her CV which is a pleasure to work with.

VOLUNTEERING

Quetta has not indicated any volunteer experiences.

OUR FEEDBACK

If you are looking for an outstanding and professional project manager with years of experience in international environments, you should consider Quetta.

Her background is impressive and she has a lot of references to prove her skills and abilities.

She is very easygoing to talk with, comes across as very professional and I believe that she will be an asset to any company that is looking for new ways to reach their customers.

Report by Paul Arnesen