

Vincy Mathew

15. May 2020

LOYALTY

Vincy has in her career been very loyal to her clients. The current client she is working with she has been with for more than 5 years. Other projects/jobs she has held have been in for an average of 3 years.

REMOTE FIT

Vincy has worked remotely for 5 years. She lives in a major city in India and speaks very well English, and has a good webcam and internet connection.

FLEXIBILITY

Her background from many years ago is in biotechnology, which she also used for a few years as a project assistant. She has been working with content and communication since 2012 and has been working on all major aspects within that field since then.

GROWTH MINDSET

She likes to use social media to understand what content people are interested in and interact with. She likes to learn languages and train herself in grammar.

CV/ONLINE PROFILES

Her LinkedIn profile is short and to the point. Her CV is more detailed and gives a better impression of her background.

VOLUNTEERING

Vincy has not indicated any volunteer projects.

OUR FEEDBACK

If you are looking for a loyal hardworking content writer Vincy is a great candidate. She works well alone, but could also be part of a team of content writers.

Her background from the biotech means she can be a valuable asset for companies dealing in that field.

She also masters several Asian languages as well as English so she can work on different content topics for different regions.
