OUR FEEDBACK

Mario has a very long and interesting background from the legal field. With this background, he is able to help companies navigate through complex tasks in ways other consultants would have a difficult time doing.

He is also an entrepreneur and has started several business ventures.

His passion for innovation and his drive to scale up businesses, combined with his background, means you will get a consultant that should be able to take your business to the next level.

He has a great fit with struggling companies, but also with new exciting startups.
